of Honor, at their hall on Thursday evening, Sept. 26, 1861, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whenever, Sickness and death have sgain entered our order, and we have been again called upon to follow to the grave a departed brother, to mingle our tears with those of dear relatives and kind friends, and having performed the last solemn rite of segulars to bur brother, we have Resolved, That in the death of Brother rose Fell, this Temple is forcibly admeniabed that in the midst of life we are in death, that the most flattering prospects of a happy and successful future are liable to be succeeded on the morrow by the stern realities at death and steroity.

Resolved, That the most exalted position in life, the society of an affectionate and loving wife and admiring friends, are no barrier to the tatal shaft.

Resolved, That while we bend with humble submission to the decree of Heaven, we get cherish the hope and belief, that, though our brother can meet with us no more here, he has aten his seat in the Temple above, whose pitlare are angels and arch angels, whose atter is inscribed with the words of eternal life, and whose dome rests upon the throne of God, that temple not made with hands esernal in the heavens.

Resolved. That we extend to the widow of the deceased the sympathy of Templara of Honor, and that we are ever ready on our part to fulfill the pledge we made to him who was our brother.

Resulved. That these proceedings be published in the city papers, and a cupy cent to the family of the deceased.

Major R. P. L. Bases — We are pleased to see the announcement of the above named gentleman, of Columbus, as Paymaster in the volunteer army. The position is worthily be atowed, and its duties will be well performed. Major Baber is known in Ohio as an indefating bis worker, and has always been an active nation, and honest politician, laboring with might and main for the supremacy of the principles of the Republican party, orditeving them to be right, but at the same time has been remarkable for his freedom from all butterness or takind feeling toward a political opponent. He was the author of the correspondence of the Republican State Central Committee of Ohio, which procured the publication of the debates between Linguigh and Douglas, which told so effectually in favor of President Linguid's nomination at Chicago, and bad so wide a circulation, and with so good effect during the last Presidential contest. Notwithstanding a strong partisan, still be loyes country better than party, and in the present perilque condition of the country, as one of the Republican State Central Committee, was among the firements in advocating the abolishment of all party lines for the grand. Imparting to it an enceased gloss and brilliacoty, making it soft and silky in its texture, and causing it to cury readily.

The great celebrity and increasing demand for this unequaled preparation, convinces the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation in use. It cleaness the head and scalp from dandraff and other cutaneous discases, causing the hair to grow luxuriantly giving it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, an also, where the hair is loosening and thinaing, it will give strength and vigor to the roots and restore the growth to hose parts which have become baid, causing it to yield a resh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have bad their haar restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations have failed. L. M. nas in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facus, from persons of the highest reducettability. It will effectually prevent the hair from tarning until the latest period of life; and in causes where the hair has already changed at color, the use of the Invigorator, will with certainty restore it to it to its original has, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great for ditties it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator, can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plainjor in curis; hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being

Only Twenty-Five Cents rebottle, to be had at at, respectable Druggists and Perfamers. L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of his Invigorator, in cases where the children's hair inclines to be wear. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of Anir, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of
